PERSONAL (WORKI (In accordance with th			PREVENTION POLICY Safety Act)
POLICY STATEMENT	The City of Hamilton is committed to maintaining a Workplace climate that embodies mutual respect for the dignity and worth of each person. The City upholds a zero tolerance to Personal Harassment and as such, does not condone Personal Harassment of or by any of its Employees, in the Workplace, and at any work- related functions, or in any other work-related circumstances. In this diverse and equitable Workplace, all Employees will have the opportunity to contribute fully to the City of Hamilton's mission, vision and values and each Employee's unique contribution will be respected.
PURPOSE	 Under the Occupational Health and Safety Act, the City of Hamilton is required to have a policy for dealing with harassment complaints and a process to handle and investigate harassment complaints. This policy and its associated procedure (Resolving Harassment and Discrimination Issues) are consistent with the City's obligations under the Occupational Health and Safety Act. The intention of this policy and its procedures is to promote a healthy, respectful and supportive Workplace by preventing Personal Harassment from taking place, and where necessary to act upon complaints of such behaviour in the most prompt, fair, and timely manner with due regard to confidentiality for all parties concerned. An effective element in preventing Per Harassment is education. To this end, education program information sessions will be provided to promote awareness issues of Personal (Workplace) Harassment and to fost environment free of Personal (Workplace)Harassment with City of Hamilton.

	 Persistent, excessive or unjustified criticism and constant scrutiny beyond reasonable exercise of supervisory duties Intimidation Being coerced to engage in conduct that is not consistent with Workplace expectations of the City of Hamilton. Bullying Actions which create a "Poisoned Work Environment" which is hostile, intimidating or offensive
	An isolated insult or adverse comment typically does not constitute Personal Harassment.
Sexual Harassment	Engaging in a course of vexatious comment or conduct against a worker in a workplace because of sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or gender expression, where the course of comment or conduct is known or ought reasonably to be known to be unwelcome; making a sexual solicitation or advance where the person making the solicitation or advance is in a position to confer, grant or deny a benefit or advancement to the worker and the person knows or ought reasonably to know that the solicitation or advance is unwelcome.
	A reasonable action taken by an employer or supervisor relating to the management and direction of workers or the workplace is not workplace harassment. Actions such as performance management, training, directing work assignments and discipline does not constitute Personal (Workplace) Harassment.
Bullying	The misuse of power or position to persistently criticize, condemn or openly humiliate an individual, in a manner that undermines their ability. This involves the misuse of power or aggression to control or distress another. The power differential can take various forms, including the exercise of power in numbers, through one's position etc. The behaviour is often repeated. Bullying can also take many different forms, including physical, verbal, non-verbal, unduly influencing a decision, social isolation or overt exclusion etc.
Complainant	Any person who makes a complaint.
Employee	All Employees of the City of Hamilton, union and non-union including but not limited to, regular, temporary, probationary and contract Employees.

	• They must develop and maintain a written program to implement the Personal Harassment Policy in consultation with the joint health and safety committee. The Procedures for Resolving Harassment and Discrimination Issues form the basis and provide the elements for the workplace program. The program must be reviewed at least annually.
	 Management is responsible for not only their own actions, but also for dealing with the actions of Employees under their supervision. The following are actions which Management must undertake to prevent Personal (Workplace) Harassment and to address perceived harassment or complaints by Employees that are being harassed. Set a good example by never engaging in, tolerating or condoning harassment.
	 Make all reasonable efforts to protect Employees from harassment.
	 Consult with the Human Rights Specialist on all matters that may pertain to this policy.
	• If harassment is suspected, or if an Employee complains that they are being harassed, take action in accordance with this policy and the associated procedure (Resolving Harassment and Discrimination Issues).
	 Consult with the Human Rights Specialist as soon as possible, upon learning or suspecting that harassment may be occurring. In consultation with the Human Rights Specialist, Management must approach an Employee if harassment is suspected because some Employees may be embarrassed and/or reluctant to complain.
	• Respond immediately to any harassment complaints, by contacting the Human Rights Specialist. In most cases, only the Human Rights Specialist can formally investigate a Personal Harassment complaint (see the associated procedures – Resolving Harassment and Discrimination Issues). Management that are aware of Personal Harassment and do not take corrective action, in consultation with the Human Rights Specialist, may be subject to disciplinary action
